

The Radiant Peace Education Awards® Twenty-seventh Annual Program

Sponsored by The Radiant Peace Foundation International, Inc.

Special Opportunity for Students in Grades 1-12

All students in grades 1-12 — from public and private schools, home schools, youth and after-school groups, and abroad — are welcome to enter The Radiant Peace Education Awards®! Now in its twenty-seventh year, The Radiant Peace Education Awards program gives students an opportunity to express themselves about Radiant Peace® in their own lives.

This year's entries should be postmarked by April 11, with winners being announced in mid-May. Outstanding entries, classes, and schools will receive cash awards and certificates, and all participants receive beautiful iron-on Radiant Peace Patches! Winner's classrooms also receive cash awards. In addition, many of the most creative or exceptional entries will be displayed in The International Museum of Radiant Peace in St. Petersburg.

Please note the separate category for video entries! Students may create a 30-to-60-second PSA (public service announcement) about Radiant Peace, or can produce a video up to 10 minutes long about Radiant Peace. Outstanding entries may be shown at The International Museum of Radiant Peace on the big screen.

There are three age categories (grades 1-3, 4-8, and 9-12) and four types of entries (projects, videos, essays and art). The complete entry guidelines, printable permission forms, and a checklist to help in preparing your entries are enclosed and also available at www.radiantpeace.org/trpea/invitation.html. Please mail all entries, postmarked on or before April 11, to

Give your students the opportunity to receive national recognition for their creative and original expressions of Radiant Peace!

What is Radiant Peace®?

Radiant Peace is within us all and is available to everyone. Radiant Peace is natural, whole, harmless, not dualistic, benevolent energy within all our hearts relating us all and making us whole. Radiant Peace transcends the limits of race, age, gender, politics and religion.

The Radiant Peace Foundation International, Inc. is a 501(c)(3) educational nonprofit and is not religious, political or activist. All awards are financed by donations from generous individual and corporate donors. Please consider contributing to help make more awards possible. Thank you for your support!

The Radiant Peace Education Awards, Radiant Peace, and the Radiant Peace patch design are registered service marks of The Radiant Peace Foundation International, Inc.

The Radiant Peace Education Awards® (27th Annual) for Grades 1-12 (Spring 2017)

All students in grades 1-12 – from public and private schools, home schools, youth and after-school groups, and abroad – are welcome to enter in this twenty-seventh year. Outstanding entries receive cash awards and may be displayed in The International Museum of Radiant Peace in St. Petersburg, Florida.

ENTRY GUIDELINES

Choose from the following:

1. Radiant Peace® Group Projects

Use the special talents of your school, class or group to create your own Radiant Peace project in your school or community. Then send a report of your project and results (photos, interviews, samples, whatever expresses what you have done). Projects can be anything from a school-wide Radiant Peace project to books and quilts. Entries which include a peace sign (see note* below) are not eligible for awards.

2. Radiant Peace Videos (must include the term “Radiant Peace” to be eligible for awards)

Create a PSA (30-60 second informational spot) or an original video (less than 10 minutes) on the theme of Radiant Peace and submit a “show-ready” DVD. Entries which include a peace sign (see note* below) are not eligible for awards. Material recorded, including music, must be royalty-free.

3. Radiant Peace Essays on one of the following themes:

“Radiant Peace and Animals”

“Radiant Peace in My Life”

“What I would say about Radiant Peace to a child in another country”

“Radiant Peace on Earth, in the Solar System and the Universe”

(essays must include the term “Radiant Peace” to be eligible for awards)

Grades 1-3: up to 50 words, with or without illustrations

Grades 4-8: up to 150 words

Grades 9-12: up to 500 words

This is not only a “writing contest” but a way to recognize outstanding contributions that express something important about the theme, although spelling is important. Even if the composition skills are not fully developed, often an essay will stand out for its exceptional creativity or a genuine feeling for Radiant Peace.

4. Radiant Peace Art

Have each student create artwork on the theme of Radiant Peace and submit all entries. Entries which include a peace sign (see note* below) are not eligible for awards.

Cash awards and certificates are given for entries that show commitment to Radiant Peace and special qualities of creativity and originality in each category. Since Radiant Peace goes beyond the duality of war/peace, entries that include peace signs cannot be considered for Radiant Peace awards.

Awards will be mailed in mid-May. All participants will receive a beautiful iron-on Radiant Peace patch.

*For all of the projects and themes above, please postmark your materials on or before April 11, 2017.

In all cases, please attach a permission form on the front of each entry and enclose the checklist with how many people participated — including teachers, principals, parents, staff, and community members — so we can send Radiant Peace Patches to recognize each and every person involved. Use the checklist to help in submitting your entries. The permission form and checklist are also available online at www.radiantpeace.org/trpea/17TRPEA.pdf. Mail all entries to:

The International Museum of Radiant Peace

Sponsored by The Radiant Peace Foundation International, Inc.

5601 Central Ave., St. Petersburg, Florida

The International Museum of Radiant Peace is the first-ever and only museum in the world dedicated to Radiant Peace. Visitors of all ages learn about Radiant Peace through a variety of educational and interactive exhibits including “Radiant Peace and Animals,” “Radiant Peace around the World,” and “Radiant Peace in the Solar System.” This unique museum also showcases award-winning essays, art and videos about Radiant Peace from students throughout the United States and around the world.

The Museum can accommodate groups of up to 15 adults, or 15 children accompanied by teachers or staff. Group tours include interactive activities geared to the interests and ages of the visitors: ask about specific areas of interest when you schedule your tour. Plan 1-1½ hours for your visit. Please note that there no vending machines or eating areas in the museum.

Admission is free. Donations are welcome.

Open many Saturdays 10-3 and weekdays by arrangement.

Please check the Web site for current hours and special events.
